

Attachment A

Madison County Supplemental Rules for Household Sewage Treatment Systems

Section 15 General Soil Absorption Standards

Supplemental References: Ohio Administrative Code 3701-29-15 (G)

- (A) When a seasonal water table is present, the vertical separation distance to the seasonal water table shall be six inches, and the required minimum thickness of in situ soil beneath the infiltrative surface shall be six inches when effluent is discharged to the soil absorption component.