Entertainment Sector

July 7, 2020

We are currently fielding a lot of calls and emails with regards to allowable events and reopenings. To help inform the public of the current orders, MCPH has created a list of entertainment allowances and restrictions.

All allowances must follow the safety guidelines and requirements.

Entertainment
Allowed		Not Allowed
Amusement Parks	Miniature Golf	Arenas
Aquariums	Indoor Movie Theaters	Auditoriums
Art Galleries	Motor Raceways	Car Shows
Batting Cages	Museums	Carnivals
Bowling Alleys	Outdoor Playgrounds	Festivals
Casinos & Racinos	Outdoor Theaters	Indoor & Outdoor Concerts
Country Clubs & Social Clubs	Public Recreation Centers	Movie Nights
Ice Skating/Roller Skating Rinks	Trampoline Parks	Parades
Indoor Family Entertainment Centers	Water Parks	Performance Theaters
Laser Tag Facilities	Zoos	Stadiums

These openings and closures are in place INDEFINITELY unless the orders are rescinded or modified sooner by the state, or the state of emergency is lifted.

Please note the mass gathering limit is still set to no more than ten (10) people unless an exemption is met under sector specific orders. For a full listing of all sector openings, please visit coronavirus.ohio.gov.

Anyone looking to hold an allowable event can submit plans at covidplans.madisonph.org or email them to Erin Fawley, Director of Community Health & Accreditation, at efawley@madisonpublichealth.org.
