

GUY CEMETERY

The Guy Cemetery is located on Guy Cemetery Road in Pike Township, Madison County, Ohio. It was originally used as a family ground by the Guy Family and later deeded by the Guy family to the Pike Township Trustees as a permanent cemetery for the general internment of the dead (Beers, 1883). The cemetery serves today as the Pike Twp. cemetery. It has been fenced and expanded since it was first dedicated as a cemetery and is currently cared for and maintained by the Pike Township Trustees. It was inventoried by Michael Jones on June 20 & Aug 9, 1987. The symbol † indicates that the individual is listed on the same marker as the previous individual. For example Emma Lee McCarty and Ross McCarty Jr. are listed on the same marker.

BIGELOW PIONEER-BOERGER CEMETERY

The Bigelow Pioneer or Boerger Cemetery is located on Rosedale Road (county road 26) three and a half miles northeast of Rosedale in Pike Township, Madison County, Ohio. The cemetery is currently under the jurisdiction of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, which has repaired many of the markers and operates the cemetery as a wildflower preserve. Permission to visit this cemetery should be obtained from O.D.N.R. at Fountain Square in Columbus, Ohio. It was inventoried by Mr. & Mrs. Carl Pennington (date unknown) for the Plain City DAR and by Michael Jones on 9 May 1987.

PHELLIS CEMETERY

The Phellis Cemetery is located one mile northeast of Rosedale-Milford Center Road and three tenths of a mile east of Rosedale Road near Barron Run in Pike Township, Madison County, Ohio. It was inventoried by Mr. & Mrs. Carl Pennington (date unknown) for the Plain City DAR and by Michael Jones on 9 May 1987. The cemetery is in very poor condition although the current owner of the land has expressed an interest in restoring it. No markers were standing in 1987 so the markers are listed in alphabetical order. The * indicates those markers on the Pennington DAR list which were not found in 1987.
